

A weekly opportunity for Texans of faith to learn about important public policy issues through a faith lens and learn how you can participate in the public policy process.

Every Monday at noon (excluding holidays), Texas Impact hosts an hour long briefing focused on current legislative issues and advocacy. Texas Impact staff, and colleagues from our partner organizations, present bi-partisan insider information on a variety of topics and specialties; give current social updates; and share next steps that you can take to participate in the policy process.

Weekly Witness takes place every Monday at:

Murchison Chapel in the First United Methodist Church

1201 Lavaca Street,
Austin, TX 78705

We also invite you to like, share and rate Weekly Witness posts and invite your friends and congregations to participate in Weekly Witness in 2018.

It is broadcasted online via Texas Impact’s Facebook Live page and live on Webinar.

Our goal is to also have it available as a Podcast online in early 2018. To learn more or to receive reminders about Weekly Witness, find us on Facebook, Twitter, or sign up for weekly newsletter.
