

WHO WE ARE

Texas Impact's network consist of individuals, congregations, and institutional bodies of Christian, Jewish, Muslim, and other faiths in Texas. We work with the following kinds of institutions:

- Judicatories, or regional governing bodies of mainline Christian denominations in Texas
- Regional chapters of social justice groups affiliated with specific faith traditions
- Regional and local single-faith and interfaith groups
- Statewide ecumenical groups

HOW WE WORK

Texas Impact's Leadership Council consists of a delegation of up to two representatives from each of our member institutions as well as several at-large and special members. There are currently about 50 members of the Council.

TEXAS IMPACT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL:

- Sets legislative agenda
- Approves policy positions
- Maintains contact between Texas Impact and participating institutions

PEOPLE OF FAITH WORKING FOR JUSTICE

Transforming FAITH into ACTION

Texas Impact is an interfaith grassroots network of individuals, congregations, and governing bodies of Christian, Jewish, Muslim, and other faith traditions. We equip faith leaders and their congregations with information, opportunities, and outreach tools to educate their communities and engage with lawmakers on pressing public policy issues that affect the most vulnerable Texans and reflect the shared values of our faiths.

POLICY ISSUES

Our board decides on a set of legislative priorities in the summer before each regular Texas legislative session. Our priorities are adopted by unanimous consensus of the board and reflect the broadly held social concerns of our membership.

OUR 2025-2026 LEGISLATIVE ISSUES

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

- Protect maternal health
- Support public schools

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

- Support voting rights
- Promote good governance

HUMAN RIGHTS

- Support migrants
- Protect minority communities

CLIMATE JUSTICE

- Strengthen the grid
- Protect Texans from climate impacts
